FAQ

1. Can you print my logo on the bag?
Of course you can. We will provide suitable printing methods according to your printing requirements, such as hot stamping, screen printing, gravure printing, etc.
2. What is your mode of transportation?
Sea, air or express, etc.
3. Can you design for us?
In fact, we only provide manuscript typesetting services, printing design needs to be provided by you.
4. If I want to customize my own logo, what should I do?
Please first contact our product manager. Then put forward your customization requirements, such as bag color, size, quantity and documents containing printed content, and the product manager will quote according to your needs. The final negotiation and cooperation will enter the bag production process.

5. If there are quality problems with the received products, how do you solve them?

When unloading, you need to check all the goods, if we find damaged or defective products, you need to take pictures from the original cartons. All claims must be made within 7 working days after the container is discharged. This date is based on the arrival time of the container. We will advise you to prove the claim to a third party, or we can accept the claim from the samples or pictures you provide, and at the end we will fully compensate you for all losses.
