Product Description:

Our Biodegradable Courier Bags are perfect for shipping and mailing all kinds of goods, including clothing and shoes. They are available in a thickness of 120 microns, but we can also customize the thickness to meet your specific needs. These bags are perfect for businesses that want to reduce their environmental impact while still providing their customers with high-quality shipping materials.

Our Degradable Shipping Pouches are made from biodegradable materials, which means that they break down naturally over time. This makes them an ideal choice for businesses that are looking to reduce their environmental impact. The bags are designed to be strong and durable, ensuring that your goods will be protected during shipping.

These courier bags can be used in a variety of occasions and scenarios. They are perfect for shipping documents, clothing, electronics, and other lightweight items. These bags are customizable in size to fit the needs of your business. The bags come in various colors including Pink, Blank, Green, Apricot, and Purple to match your brand or personal preference.

These courier bags are durable and waterproof, ensuring that your items are safe during transit. They are also lightweight, reducing the shipping cost for businesses. These bags are perfect for e-commerce businesses, online retailers, and individuals who want to reduce their carbon footprint.
